TORRES & FOWSER WILL DO BATTLE NEXT WEEK

Special Bout Arranged by Mark Levy for His Big Fistic Bill; York and Higgins Train.

Director Mark Levy of the New Mexico A. C. is busy on the preliminary card which is to furnish the Bob York-Al Higgins fight at the Elks theater next week.

There will be a special event important enough almost to overshadow the main go, Frankie Fowser arrived here today and Director Levy left no time in stating him to meet Jack Torres. There is a bout that will be a bout, and the fans will wet their lips in anticipation of a battle feast from now until the long clanks.

The big card will be staged next Wednesday night. Fowser and Torres will go into training immediately, and both of them will be on edge when they meet.

The special will be carded as the semi-final number of the program.

Barney Kurts of Albuquerque, and Johnny Donohue of Denver will go on in one of the appetizers. Donohue arrived here with York and Director Levy is highly pleased with the showing he has made in workouts.

Mr. Levy hopes to find material for his other preliminary among the soldiers of Troop K, who will arrive here Saturday to take part in the fair. It is pretty nearly always possible to find a scrapper or two in any army organization.

Higgins and York will begin sparring with training partners today.

The Markets

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Wheat today continued on the down grade, influenced by the huge increase of the world's available supply and by reports of free Canadian offers at Liverpool. Prices opened unchanged to 1/4c lower and in later dealings they were a moderate setback all around. The close was weak, 3/8c net lower.

Fine weather had a bearish effect on the corn market. After opening 1/4c lower, prices recovered somewhat, but still tended to sag. The close, however, was weak at the same as last night to 1/4c down. Oats developed independent strength on account of buying on the part of speculative leaders.

Provisions went lower on account of a fall in the price of hogs. Most of the trading was in lard.

Close:
Wheat—Sept., $1.04; Dec., $1.08 1/2; May, $1.15.
Corn—Dec., 67 1/2c; May, 71 1/2c.

Pork—Sept., $17.20; Jan., $19.32.
Lard—Oct., $9.42; Jan., $10.10.
